

Coral Reef Ecology Curaçao

Dates

February 3-17, 2021

Venue

CARMABI Research Station,
Curaçao

Application deadline

November 1st, 2020

Vacancy only secured upon full payment*

Course

6 ECTS course MSc level.
As Coral Reef Ecology,
Internship, or Field Methods
Universidade do Algarve, Portugal

Costs

1650€

Incl: dive tanks, boat and lab costs, field transportation, education & research gear

Excl: CARMABI accommodation (from 17$/night), flight, DAN insurance (~80€), divegear (~200$rent @ TheDiveshop), meals & drinks

Contact info

Ester Serrão eserrao@ualg.pt
Aschwin Engelen aengelen@ualg.pt
Pedro Frade prfrade@ualg.pt

MAX. 12 students, 4 per supervisor

Requirements

OpenWater diving licence (or equivalent)
Enrollment in Master program
Divecomputer
Laptop

Dive into the coral reef and develop your research & diving skills

- ✓ Learn & investigate Coral Reef Ecology: species ID, reef processes, field and lab methods, run your own mini research project
- ✓ Be part of coral research & conservation efforts
- ✓ Earn ECTS at the hotspot of Caribbean coral reef research: CARMABI Research Station